Winter Sport Registrations

Miniball – Netball – Hockey

Winter sport information and registration is available now on our school website www.ops.school.nz/information/sport/

Registrations will close at 1pm, Tuesday 2nd April.

Yummy Stickers

Keep munching and crunching your way through the Yummy Apples and fill up the sticker collection sheets. We earn sports equipment for our school for every completed sticker sheet we send back. Please pop the full stickered forms into the green PTA box in the library entranceway.

PTA DONUT DAY

Donut order forms will come home next week and DONUT DAY is locked in for Thursday 11th April. $3.50 will buy you a delicious sugary donut treat. Start thinking how helpful you can be around the house to earn some DONUT DOLLARS.

Principal's Pānui

Kia ora e te whānau

Firstly, a huge thank you to our wonderful PTA, parent helpers & staff for their organisation, help with and/or participation in the recent Adventure Run! We raised $21,198 for our kura!

A special mention to all children who organised sponsors and collected money on behalf of our school. Extra special mention to the follow children who raised the most sponsorship money.

1st - Priseis $910

2nd - Desire-Lee $825

3rd - Louis T $600

4th - Chloe & Annabel $550

Thank you tamariki mā - what an amazing effort from you all!

House Winners: 1st - Tōtara, 2nd - Pūriri, 3rd - Kōwhai, 4th - Pōhutukawa, 5th - Rimu, 6th - Kauri

A particular mention and thank you to Lisa Kerr, Rachel Harvey, Mr Johnson and Mr Hughes! We couldn't have done it without you!

Next term, I have been lucky enough to have been awarded a Primary School Principal's Sabbatical. This means I will be away from school in Term 2. The fabulous Mrs Miller will take over the role of Acting Principal in my absence. I know the school will continue to run smoothly and I look forward to returning in Term 3.

Here's wishing you a safe and happy Easter! Don't forget that all schools are closed on Tuesday (2nd April). See you on Wednesday 3rd April.
